THE MESSAGE

The human and spiritual drama of The Passion of Christ is easily understood as a sequence of callous and cruel physical events against Jesus Christ. The arrest, trial, flogging and subsequent crucifixion of Christ is well documented by the four Apostles, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, and each provides a new understanding of what took place some 2000 years ago. The Message of the Passion is not one of hatred, but one of love. This very simple message seems impossible to fulfil in the 21st century where the notion of love is interpreted as love of oneself. This misplaced credo of I instead of We, has created self centred societies. Mistrust of one another, fear of ones neighbours and deception by our leaders have become the norm. The solution is simple, the message is clear, yet in spite of the most sophisticated global communication systems being available the message remains unheard. Jesus Christ gave us a very simple message. This is my commandment,

That ye love one another, as I have loved you. John 15:12.

Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Matthew 19:19

Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them. Matthew 7:12

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; Matthew 5:44.
